

WOW!

2019

Words the Orangeville Way

Saturday, September 28 • 1 p.m. • Mill Street Library

Featuring Crime Writers of Canada

Moderator – Judy Penz Sheluk

Editor Judy Penz Sheluk is the Amazon international bestselling author of the Glass Dolphin Mystery and the Marketville Mystery series. Her short stories can be found in several collections, including Live Free or Tri and The Best Laid Plans.

Judy is also a member of Sisters in Crime, International Thriller Writers, the Short Mystery Fiction Society, and Crime Writers of Canada, where she serves as Vice Chair on the Board of Directors.

Find her at www.judypenzsheluk.com.

Anita Arvast

A professor of humanities and a true crime writer, Dr. Anita Arvast doesn't sensationalize murders. She digs to the roots and unearths the stories you never heard about through the media.

Check out her work and words at www.anitaarvast.ca

WOW!

2019

Words the Orangeville Way

Saturday, September 28 • 1 p.m. • Mill Street Library

Featuring Crime Writers of Canada

Moderator – Judy Penz Sheluk

Editor Judy Penz Sheluk is the Amazon international bestselling author of the Glass Dolphin Mystery and the Marketville Mystery series. Her short stories can be found in several collections, including Live Free or Tri and The Best Laid Plans.

Judy is also a member of Sisters in Crime, International Thriller Writers, the Short Mystery Fiction Society, and Crime Writers of Canada, where she serves as Vice Chair on the Board of Directors.

Find her at www.judypenzsheluk.com.

Anita Arvast

A professor of humanities and a true crime writer, Dr. Anita Arvast doesn't sensationalize murders. She digs to the roots and unearths the stories you never heard about through the media.

Check out her work and words at www.anitaarvast.ca

Diane Bator

Diane Bator has a passion for the written word. A storyteller since childhood, she loves to read, write and edit with a vengeance. A lady of mystery, she is the author of the Wild Blue Mysteries and the Gilda Wright Mystery series and is a member of the Headwater Writers' Guild and Crime Writers of Canada.

Learn more at www.penspainsandpaper.com

Diane Bator

Diane Bator has a passion for the written word. A storyteller since childhood, she loves to read, write and edit with a vengeance. A lady of mystery, she is the author of the Wild Blue Mysteries and the Gilda Wright Mystery series and is a member of the Headwater Writers' Guild and Crime Writers of Canada.

Learn more at www.penspainsandpaper.com

Rosemary McCracken

Rosemary McCracken writes the Pat Tierney mysteries. The first novel in the series, Safe Harbor, was a finalist for Britain's Debut Dagger award. It was followed by Black Water and Raven Lake. The Sweetheart Scamster, a Pat Tierney story in the anthology Thirteen, was a Derringer Award finalist. Jack Batten, the Toronto Star's crime fiction reviewer, calls Pat "a hugely successful sleuth figure."

Visit her website at <https://rosemarymccracken.wordpress.com>

Rosemary McCracken

Rosemary McCracken writes the Pat Tierney mysteries. The first novel in the series, Safe Harbor, was a finalist for Britain's Debut Dagger award. It was followed by Black Water and Raven Lake. The Sweetheart Scamster, a Pat Tierney story in the anthology Thirteen, was a Derringer Award finalist. Jack Batten, the Toronto Star's crime fiction reviewer, calls Pat "a hugely successful sleuth figure."

Visit her website at <https://rosemarymccracken.wordpress.com>

Nanci M. Pattenden

After digging into her own genealogy, Nanci uncovered a story about a young ancestor, sent to Canada from an English workhouse, who ended up on trial for murder. This story, her interest in genealogy, local history and love of Victorian murder mysteries inspired Nanci to start writing. A member of Sisters in Crime, Crime Writers of Canada, and The Writers' Community of York Region, Nanci is currently working on a collection of detective stories set in Victorian Toronto.

For more information please visit www.nancipattenden.com.

Nanci M. Pattenden

After digging into her own genealogy, Nanci uncovered a story about a young ancestor, sent to Canada from an English workhouse, who ended up on trial for murder. This story, her interest in genealogy, local history and love of Victorian murder mysteries inspired Nanci to start writing. A member of Sisters in Crime, Crime Writers of Canada, and The Writers' Community of York Region, Nanci is currently working on a collection of detective stories set in Victorian Toronto.

For more information please visit www.nancipattenden.com.

Maggie Petru

Maggie Petru did what most authors want to do. She earned her living by writing. Only it was factual writing for daily and weekly newspapers in Halton Region and Wellington County. Now retired and living in Burlington, she has switched to writing family-based thrillers and mysteries set in small-town Ontario over the past century.

Visit her website at <http://maggiepetru.com>

Maggie Petru

Maggie Petru did what most authors want to do. She earned her living by writing. Only it was factual writing for daily and weekly newspapers in Halton Region and Wellington County. Now retired and living in Burlington, she has switched to writing family-based thrillers and mysteries set in small-town Ontario over the past century.

Visit her website at <http://maggiepetru.com>

* Author exhibition to follow event

* Author exhibition to follow event